ETHICAL/ LEGAL CONSIDERATIONS

A submitted manuscript must be an original contribution not previously published, must not be under consideration for publication elsewhere in similar form, in any language. Each person listed as an author is expected to have participated in the study to a significant extent. Although the editors and referees make every effort to ensure the validity of published manuscripts, the final responsibility rests with the authors, not with the Journal, its editors, or the publisher. The editors, publishers or other involved parties do not owe any responsibility for any damage or loss of any type due to the contents of this journal. All disputes are subject to Ambala jurisdiction only.

COPYRIGHT

All authors must sign a copy of the Journal's "Undertaking by Authors" & "Copyright Transfer Agreement" and submit it at the time of manuscript submission. The views expressed in the papers are of the individual authors and not of the editorial team or the publisher. Copyright clearance will be the sole responsibility of the author(s) for his/her contribution to IJIDT.

PUBLICATION POLICY

Each article is reviewed and checked for plagiarism with an International Plagiarism Software by the review panel of IJIDT or an appropriate expert. Acceptance for publication is contingent upon addressing all concerns of peer reviewers. There is not any submission or publication fee from the authors/researchers. Generally the author is notified regarding the acceptability of the manuscript within ten weeks; editorial decisions may occasionally take longer. Readers are invited to respond to any article in the form of letters/ email to the editor-in-chief. The decision of the Editor-in-Chief is full and final in all matters and he reserves the right to make corrections in the submitted manuscript as per the review report and printing requirements.
